

Learning Disabilities Association of North Carolina

Leading the Way for People with Learning Disabilities, their Families and Professionals

With nearly 40,000 members, the Learning Disabilities Association of America (LDA) has been leading the way for people with learning disabilities, their families and professionals since 1964.

LDA believes that every person with learning disabilities can succeed in school, at work, in relationships, and within the community—when provided the right opportunities.

At the national, state and local levels, LDA provides cutting edge information on learning disabilities, practical solutions, and a comprehensive network of resources.

LDA provides support to people with learning disabilities, their parents, teachers and other professionals.
